The Truth of The Lord, יְהוָה בָּן יְהוָה, Endures Forever

“And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.” (Revelation 12:9).

The great dragon and his angels have deceived the “whole” world. They have caused the whole world to believe a lie (Jeremiah 16:19). And because of this, Hosea 4:1 says:

“... there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God, תִּלְכֵד, in the land.”

Until the coming of יְהוָה בָּן יְהוָה, there was no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of יְהוָה בָּן יְהוָה in the land. As a consequence, deep darkness is upon the whole face of the earth, and the sins of man have reached unto heaven (Revelation 18:5).

Many are desperately searching for knowledge of the one true God, יְהוָה, that they may come to know the truth. John 16:13 reveals how the truth is to be made known:

“Howbeit when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into ‘all’ truth: ... and He will shew you things to come.”

יְהוָה, the Father, has sent His only begotten Son, יְהוָה בָּן יְהוָה, the very Spirit of truth, to guide you into “ALL” truth and to show you things to come. As stated in John 14:6:

“... I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me.”

יְהוָה בָּן יְהוָה, the Spirit of truth, will show you the way, teach you the truth, and give you eternal life. No man can come into the knowledge of the truth of God, יְהוָה, but by Him. And as written in John 18:37:

“... To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth ‘My’ voice.”

יְהוָה בָּן יְהוָה was born and is come into the world to bear witness unto the truth. And every one that is seeking the truth will hear “His” voice (or adhere to His teachings). According to 1 Timothy 2:3-4:

“For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God, יְהוָה, our Saviour; Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.”

What is truth? The answer is found in John 17:17:

“... Thy [תְּבוּנָה] word is truth.”

The “truth” can only be found in the WORD of תְּבוּנָה. How might this be done? The answer is found in Jeremiah 29:13:

“And ye shall seek Me, and find Me, when ye shall search for Me with ‘all’ your heart.”

To find the truth in the word of יְהוָה, you must search the word of יְהוָה, as taught by His Son, יְהוָה בָּן יְהוָה, with “all” your heart. And Proverbs 2:3-6 addresses the particular manner in which this must be done:

“Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures; Then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, תְּבוּנָה בָּן תְּבוּנָה, and find the knowledge of God, תְּבוּנָה. For the Lord, תְּבוּנָה, giveth wisdom: out of His mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.”

When you do as prescribed in this Scripture, then you shall find the knowledge of יְהוָה. For “only” the Lord, יְהוָה בָּן, gives wisdom: and out of “His” mouth only comes both knowledge and understanding.

A clear understanding of the word search is obligatory. Therefore, according to The New Strong’s Complete Dictionary of Bible Words, copyright 1996, on pages 224-225, the Hebrew word for search (reference number 2713) is chaqar, pronounced khaw-kar, and it means to “examine or search.” In compliance with Merriam Webster’s Deluxe Dictionary, Tenth Collegiate Edition, copyright 1998, on page 633, to examine the word is “to test by questioning in order to determine knowledge.” In the same source, on page 1652, to search the word is “to explore by inspecting possible places of concealment; to look at as if to discover or penetrate nature; to read thoroughly.” And on page 1525, to read the word means “to interpret the meaning of; to learn the nature of by observing signs; or to pursue a course of study.”

In light of these definitions, Proverbs 25:2 delineates that:

“It is the glory of God, תִּבְרֹא, to ‘conceal’ a thing: but the honour of kings is to ‘search’ out a matter.”

It is to the glory of God, יְהוָה, to conceal the truth. But to find the knowledge of יְהוָה, you must consider it an honor to test His word by questioning it in order to determine knowledge. You must consider it an honor to explore His word by inspecting possible places of concealment. In order to find the truth, you must also be honored to look at the word as if to discover or penetrate the very nature of each word. And even more, you must be honored to interpret the meaning of the words as written in the Holy Bible and learn their very nature by observing signs--periods, commas, semicolons, colons, question marks, exclamation marks--associated with them. On the whole, you must consider it an honor to pursue a course of continuous and diligent study--using the “divine” Ten Step Study Method of יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה--and to exercise 2 Timothy 2:15:

“Study to shew ‘thyself’ approved unto God, תִּבְרֹא, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.”

Pursuing this “divine” course of study, you shall come into the knowledge of יְהוָה, and learn the truth. The truth of יְהוָה will set you free (John 8:32) from all the lies with which Satan and his angels have deceived the whole world.

If you search for יְהוָה with “all” your heart, you shall find Him. And know that you are not alone in your search, for it is written in Ezekiel 34:11:

“For thus saith the Lord God, תִּבְרֹא, יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה; Behold, I, even I, will both search My sheep, and seek them out.”

While you are searching for יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה, know that He is also searching for you. “The truth of יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה endures forever. Praise ye the Lord, תִּבְרֹא!”

יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה; TRUST IN THE LORD, HE IS OUR HELP AND OUR SHIELD

The truth of the Lord, תִּבְרֹא, يְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה, endures forever will be the central subject matter for the entire year of 6009/2006. So start preparing now to attend all of our three high holy feasts, because this coming year is promised to be filled with knowledge that shall take us to an even higher level of spiritual luminosity, guaranteed to set our minds free and give us added assurance that we can put our trust in the Lord, יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה; and to know that He is our help and our shield.

The Ten Plagues of Egypt, Part 7

"Thus saith the Lord, יְהוָה, Israel is My Son, even My firstborn: And I say unto thee, Let My Son, יְהוָה בֶן יְהוָה, go, that He may serve Me: and if thou refuse...." (Exodus 4:22-23)

We shall resume our course of studying "The Ten Plagues of Egypt." This is Part 7, and our beginning study of the Fourth Plague.

It is written in the Scriptures that יְהוָה sent His servants, Moses and Aaron, time and time again unto the Pharaoh of Egypt with a direct message from Him to let the children of Israel go free. Because Pharaoh had such a recalcitrant attitude, he remained extremely adamant in his decision to not adhere to the command of יְהוָה and, therefore, refused to let the children of Israel go. So to get Pharaoh's attention and to wear down his impenetrable hardness, יְהוָה, in His great indignation, punished all the land of Egypt with unrelenting plagues until Pharaoh yielded to His command and decided to let the children of Israel go.

Today, we are witnessing history being repeated: Another great leader has risen and is challenging the command as well as the superior power and authority of יְהוָה. Modern-day Pharaoh, President George W. Bush, is displaying the same stubborn and callous behavior as ancient Pharaoh. Time and time again we, like Moses, have warned President Bush that if he continues to allow the United States Parole Commission to hold בֶן יְהוָה, the Son of יְהוָה, in captivity under the most horrific "onerous" restrictions ever imposed upon a "so-called" American citizen, then יְהוָה shall continue to punish America with unrelenting plagues until President Bush, like Pharaoh, decides to let יְהוָה בֶן יְהוָה go.

Having said that, we are now ready to begin decrypting the fourth plague, which is described in Exodus, Chapter 8, verses 20 and 21:

"And the Lord, יְהוָה, said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, יְהוָה, Let My people go, that they may serve Me."

"Else, if thou wilt not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.”

Please take note that Pharaoh and the Egyptian people did not have to experience the wrath of יהוה. The fact of the matter is, His command was conditional: He would only send swarms of flies “IF” Pharaoh would NOT let the children of Israel go. The same message that יהוה told Moses to say unto Pharaoh over four thousand years ago is yet the same message we are communicating to President George W. Bush today, and that is: Thus saith the Lord, בָּנֵי יִהוָה, Let My Son, בָּנֵי יִהוָה, go that He may serve Me, or else, “if” you will not let Him go, behold, I will send swarms of flies not only upon you, but also upon your servants, upon your people, and into their houses.

To understand this message, we shall begin our research with the words behold and send. As referenced in the American Heritage Talking Dictionary, copyright 1997, Computer Software, behold means “to watch”; while watch is denoted as “to look and wait expectantly.”

Predicated on the correctness of the Webster’s New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1953, on page 769, the word send means “to dispatch an agent.” In the Bartlett’s Roget’s Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 600, to dispatch is to “set in motion.” And according to The Oxford Universal Dictionary, copyright 1955, on page 34, an agent is singled out as “any natural force that produces phenomena.”

Therefore, the words behold and send when translated serve as a warning to alert President Bush to look and wait expectantly for יהוה to set in motion natural forces that produce phenomena. The word phenomena is the plural of phenomenon. And as recorded in the Merriam Webster’s 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software, a phenomenon is described as “a rare event.” In the same source, rare is something “seldom occurring or uncommon.”

In linking together all of the facts that we have gathered thus far from the words behold and send, we are of the opinion that יהוה is warning President Bush that as long as he refuses to release His Son, בָּנֵי יהוה, from the onerous restrictions that have been imposed upon Him by the United States Parole Commission, then he--President Bush--might as well look and wait expectantly for יהוה to set in motion natural forces that will produce events that seldom occur and are even uncommon in America. These events are described in Exodus, Chapter 8, verse 21, which reads in part:

“... behold, I will send swarms of flies ...

These events are referred to as swarms of flies. Now from a literal sense, swarms of flies upon President Bush, upon his servants, and upon the American people, and into their houses really would not be such a big deal to them. For the government has megatons of strong insecticides that could easily bring them under control or wipe them out. So, apparently, swarms of flies are figuratively describing something else.

To decipher this typology and find out exactly what these swarms of flies symbolize, we must consult the authorities--the dictionaries. Swarm, the singular of the plural word swarms, in the New Oxford American Dictionary, copyright 2001, Computer Software, is characterized as "a series of similar-sized earthquakes occurring together." A series is documented in the Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1953, on page 772, as "a number of things succeeding in order"; while, the word succeed, the base of succeeding, means "to come next after another." The Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2001, on page 1505, defines the word together as "at the same time; simultaneously."

Based upon the accuracy of these facts, we can assert that the word swarm symbolizes a number of similar-sized earthquakes succeeding in order or coming next after another and occurring at the same time or simultaneously. Interestingly, "A series of earthquakes are called earthquake swarms," according to the Encyclopedia Britannica 2005 Ultimate Reference, CD-ROM, under earthquake, subtitled "Aftershocks, foreshocks, and swarms (from earthquakes)."

Additionally, these similar-sized earthquake swarms shall be "...of flies" as written in Exodus, Chapter 8, verse 21. Let us gain an understanding of what the phrase "... of flies" means. The American Heritage Talking Dictionary, copyright 1997, Computer Software, verifies that the word of means "caused by; resulting from." So in simple terms, this definition infers that these earthquake swarms shall be caused by or result from flies.

The Barnhart Concise Dictionary of Etymology, copyright 1995, on page 290, confirms that the word fly, the singular of the plural flies, etymologically derives from the word "insect." Insect, in The Oxford Dictionary of English Etymology, copyright 1998, on page 477, originates from Latin insecare, meaning "cut." In The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 253, the word cut is equivalent to "rift"; and a rift is depicted as a "fault" (as referenced in the Merriam Webster's 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software). Thus, based on this research, flies are symbolic of faults.

And in accordance with The Microsoft Encarta Reference Library, copyright 1993-2003, Computer Software, "Fault[s] (geology) [are] cracks in the crust of the earth along which there have been movement of the rocks on either side of the cracks... Faults are created by stress in the earth's crust... Earthquakes are sudden movements in the earth's crust. They occur along faults when stress building up in the crust is suddenly released."

This research authenticates that the phrase "of flies" infers that these earthquake swarms shall be caused by or result from יְהוָה י' causing cracks to occur in the crust of the earth and the rocks on either side of the cracks to move. And, subsequently, He shall cause the stress build up from the sudden movement in the earth's crust to be suddenly released.

In light of all our research, we can conclude beyond a shadow of a doubt that swarms of flies do in fact pose a serious threat as well as imminent danger to America's overall welfare. It is obvious that the President has neither the power nor authority to control these swarms of flies, as we now know them.

Summarily, we can conclude from the definitions of the words behold, send, swarm, of, and fly that יְהוָה י' shall set in motion a number of similar-sized earthquake swarms. He will cause these earthquake swarms to succeed in order or come next after another and occur at the same time or simultaneously. יְהוָה י' shall cause cracks to occur in the crust of the earth, and the rocks on either side of the cracks to move. Then He shall cause the stress build up from the sudden movement in the earth's crust to be suddenly released, resulting in earthquake swarms that shall come not only upon President Bush, but also upon his servants, the American people, and into their houses. These seldom occurring or uncommon earthquake swarms shall be such as was not since the beginning of the world, no, nor ever shall be (Matthew 24:21). Not even the world's best seismologists along with the worldwide network of sophisticated seismographs (machines that record movements of the Earth) will be able to predict or prevent יְהוָה י' from setting these natural forces in motion.

This is why we are saying to President George W. Bush: Thus saith the Lord, יְהוָה י', "If" you continue to refuse to let My Son, יְהוָה בָן יְהוָה, go, then know of a surety that you--President Bush--can look and wait expectantly for the houses of all the Americans to be full of unrelenting earthquake swarms, and also the ground whereon they are.

In our next article, we will explain in great detail the people who will and will not be affected by these great earthquake swarms, as the remainder of Exodus, Chapter 8, verse 21 is unveiled.
