Ephesus: Filled With Confusion and Riots

Chapter 5

"And the whole city was filled with confusion: . . ." (Acts 19:29)

The whole city of Ephesus was filled with confusion. Ephesus was a city, but is also representative of a country. Therefore, the prophecy would involve a future country. Satan disguised it in the writing as a church: one of the seven churches of Asia.

As there was much confusion then, we are beginning to witness that there is much confusion in America now. There was a riot at Ephesus, and Ephesus was a literal happening of a prophetic future event. So if everything comes out true, then there should be riots in America. This is going to make a lot more sense to you as you continue to read.

Ephesus -Pages 29-30-

In this book, יהוה בן יהוה reveals the shocking parallels between ancient Ephesus and modern-day America. The wealth of Ephesus was threatened just like America today, and her craft was in danger, which resulted in rioting and civil unrest in the streets, much like the Occupy and Black Lives Matter movements. If you would like to embark on an informative, historical odyssey, then read this book.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM יהוה בן יהוח

This message is to the faithful, who will be with Me, the Messiah: יהוה בן יהוח.

The Revelation of יהוה בן יהוח, Christ, which gave unto Me, to show unto My servants things which must shortly come to pass (Revelation 1:1).

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty (Revelation 1:8).

Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand (Revelation 1:3).

I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What you see, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia, unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea (Revelation 1:11).

Now that My words are transcribed and published into books, you, for the first time, have an opportunity to read and understand this prophecy concerning Me, these cities, and how they relate to you in the end times.

In 1981, I began to express to you, My servants, that the seven churches of Asia represent seven cities. I told you emphatically that what took place historically in these seven cities—Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea—is significant, because all that took place will actually take place in America today. I also stated that the number seven in relationship to these seven cities signifies perfection, completion, and fulfillment as to what would happen to Me during My First Coming as well as My people while living in America.

In the past, several cities were destroyed due to their transgressions against the laws of יהוה. However, at that time, the Kingdom of יהוה, Heaven, was not at hand, but today it is!

Therefore, America, I say unto you, remember from whence you have fallen, and repent, and do your first works: stand on the Biblical principles you once stood, or else I will come unto you quickly, and will remove your candlestick [nation] out of his place, except you repent (Revelation 2:5).

And to the people of America, if your rulers choose not to repent, then you should do as the people of Nineveh: repent. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the cities: To him that overcome will I give to eat of the Tree of Life, which is in the midst of the paradise of יהוה (Revelation 2:7).

Behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last (Revelation 22:12-13).

Blessed are they that do My commandments, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the city (Revelation 22:14).

EPHESUS THEN AMERICA Now

Shipping Lanes or Dry Plains

Have you ever had to keep your car steady on the road after an eighteen wheeler blew past? Did you ever stop to think what's inside those containers they are carrying so fast? Or maybe where they are going or where did they come from?

Well, those containers rolling along the highways just left a shipping lane from one of America's Port Authorities.

From the Ancient times of Ephesus to the modern times of today, the sea ports have been the gate ways to domestic and international trade connecting commodities all over the world.

History shows Ephesus was a major port city with an artificial harbor accessible to the largest ships and connected by highways to the chief cities of the province.

Ephesus was also the most easily accessible city of Asia, both by land and sea, according to the International Standard Bible Encyclopedia, E-Sword Computer Software.

Based on these stated facts, we can gather that Ephesus had fabulous highways and a major sea port where goods were traded and transported to other cities by merchants. To say the least, this sounds like any Port City in America today, whether on the East Coast, West Coast, or Gulf Coast.

The Port of Ephesus was a man-made harbor that became silted up. What does this mean?

Silt, the root of silted as documented in The American Heri- tage Student Dictionary, copyright 1998, on page 880, is defined as "a material consisting of mineral particles smaller than those of sand and larger than those of clay, often found at the bottom of bodies of water." And silt up means "to become clogged," as referenced in The Oxford Dictionary and Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 1412.

From these definitions, we can safely assert that as regime changes took place in the city of Ephesus, maintenance on its harbors' infrastructure became less and less important, whether wittingly or unwittingly. This was because the natural process of mineral particles that were smaller than sand and larger than clay had settled at the bottom and filled up its harbor. And as a result, the government of Ephesus made an unsound economic decision that allowed silt to remain and clog up its water ways.

יהוה, the God of the Bible, warned all nations that forget Him and His way of life shall be turned into hell (Psalm 9:17).

Hell is "a place of destruction," according to The American Heritage Talking Dictionary, copyright 1997, Computer Software.

Today, the destroyed city of Ephesus sits six miles inland lying in a swampy plain.

As we look at America and reflect back on the ruined city of Ephesus, we see the ports of America are in a similar situation. To keep her water ways from clogging up, government officials have made the same economic decisions for dredging the ocean floor to remove the sand and clay in maintaining the infrastructures of her sea ports that were already lacking.

Shipping Lanes or Dry Plains

The shipping facilities of Ephesus were destroyed which, therefore, indicate that the exports of America will be greatly hindered.

Hindered from the American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, Fifth Edition, copyright 2011, on page 831, means "to obstruct or delay the progress of." In this same source, on page 1217, obstruct is described as "to block with obstacles."

יהוה is again using silt from the bottom of His ocean to block and delay the progress of exports leaving the ports or harbors of America. When the water ways are clogged after the effects of natural disasters, this is an obstacle that prevents shipping containers from getting to the shipping lanes.

יהוה is Judging America: as she continues to dig up the oceans to restore shipping lanes, He is reclaiming His oceans. As fast as they dig it up, יהוה takes it back.

In a quick Google search on "silts in harbors," there are news clips of ports and waterways becoming dry, thus, needing money for dredging

What is Dredging?

Dredging is the act of removing silt and other material from the bottom of bodies of water. It is a routine necessity in waterways around the world because sedimentation—the natural process of sand and silt washing downstream—gradually fills channels and harbors.

Dredging often is focused on maintaining or increasing the depth of navigation channels or berthing areas to ensure the safe passage of boats and ships. Vessels require a certain amount of water in order to float and not touch bottom. Since massive ships carry the bulk of the goods imported into the country, dredging plays a vital role in the nation's economy.

NOAA's National Ocean Service

the ocean floor. Here are a few examples in the last few months:

April 7, 2015, Port Ogdensburg of New York gets ten million dollars from state for the purpose of dredging; April 2, 2015 Hickman Harbor of Kentucky received $625,000 for dredging; March 25, 2015, Mississippi River Harbor to dredge in four states, AK, KY, MO, and TN; February 3, 2015, Port of Georgetown of South Carolina gets two million dollars for dredging.

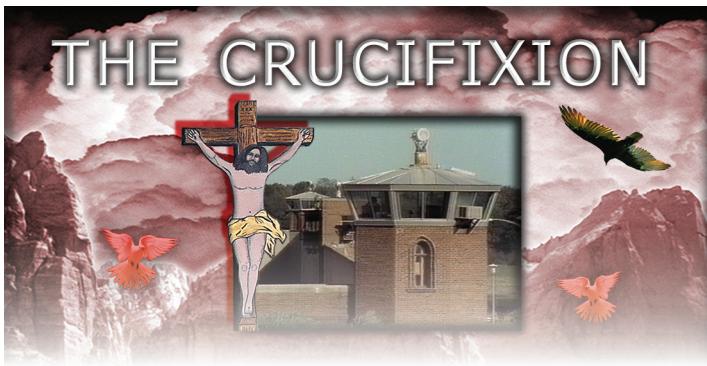

America is spending millions of dollars to prevent the current, natural phenomenon of יהוה from delaying and destroying their ability to import and export commodities. The irony is, just one hurricane, earthquake, or tsunami of יהוה could change the ocean floor, so much so that the shipping lanes would become dry plains, just as in Ephesus.

In part two of Shipping Lanes or Dry Plains, we will uncover how יהוה will hinder exports at America's Ports.

The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 1:9

"Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled" (Matthew 23:34). Now let us provide you with documented facts concerning "this generation."

The adjective this denotes "the present." The noun generation is described as "in Theology, the origin of Christ from God the Father" (as stated in The Shorter Oxford English Dictionary, copyright 2007, computer software); and origin is synonymous to "first appearance" (according to Webster's New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 2006, computer software). The Holy Bible verifies that a generation is forty years (Numbers 14:33-34; 32:13).

יהוָה בָּן יְהוָה "first" appeared in Miami, Florida, in 1979. And at that time, He proclaimed "Himself" to be the Messiah. This officially constituted His "Messianic" birth. When 40 years are added to 1979, it takes us through 2019.

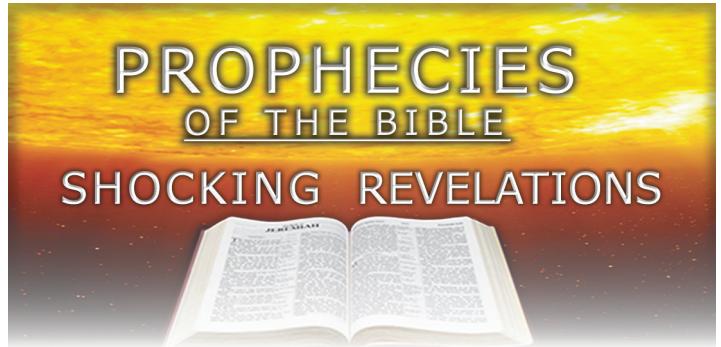

Therefore, those living in this present generation shall not pass till all that is written about יהוָה בָּן יְהוָה be fulfilled. As a matter of fact, this is the only generation that has already witnessed the Messianic birth of Christ, יהוָה בָּן, His works, persecution, crucifixion, and death.

Now for all who are slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken regarding the Messiah, we urge you to do 2 Timothy 2:15, because just as we have witnessed the Mesianic birth of יהוָה בָּן יְהוָה and His death on May 7, 2007, then it is only logical to conclude that, as prophesied, we shall also bear witness to the fulfillment of His Second Coming, in This generation.

For more details, visit our website and click the Crucifixion button.

For quite some time now, the disciples of יהוָה בָּן יְהוָה have posted over 170 shocking revelations on our website. These are revelations that everyone must know, because the Day of the Lord, יהוָה בָּן יְהוָה, is at hand.

Therefore, get this information while it is still day: for the night cometh, when no man can work (John 9:4). Night means "the dark; a time of ignorance." Ignorance is a "lack of information" (as referenced in Random House Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, copyright 1999, Computer Software); night is also synonymous to "evening." And evening denotes the "fall" (according to Roget's Thesaurus of English Words and Phrases, copyright 1937, reference 126, on page 41).

Coming this fall 2015, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) will make a decision that may usher in a period of darkness by regulating Internet access. This will be a time in which there will be a lack of information due to what is permissible and what is not.

The FCC is moving toward labeling all Internet Service Providers (ISPs) as common carriers, like AT&T, Time Warner Cable, and electric utility companies.

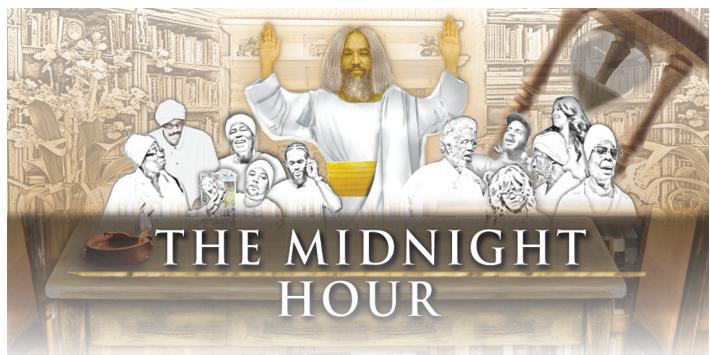

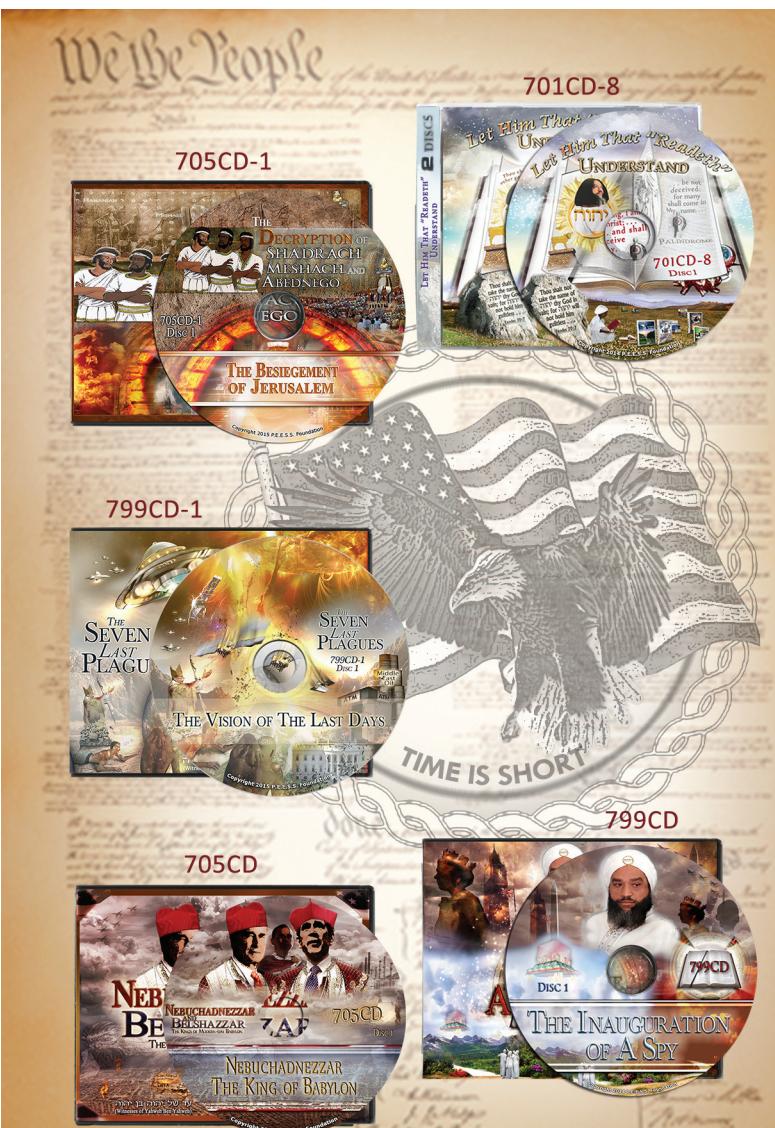

Classifying ISPs as common carriers could censure content and permit federal government intrusion into the operation of all Internet services, ultimately prohibiting free speech and expression guaranteed under the First Amendment of the Constitution.

You may say this cannot happen in America. Oh, but it can. While יהוָה בָּן יְהוָה was on parole in the fall of 2001, the government of America trampled over His First Amendment rights under the veil of a “compelling government interest,” and did not allow Him to have any contact with His followers by any means, whether by Internet, television, radio, phone, written form, or in person. He was also prohibited from the use of the Internet as a means of communication with “members of the Black Hebrews.”

Therefore, if they could impose such onerous communication restrictions upon יהוה בָּן יְהוָה, then they most assuredly can impose restrictions on your accessibility to the Internet through a government controlled and regulated utility.

To download free copies of Prophecies of the Bible, click Shocking Revelations—while it is still day!

Now “at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the Bridegroom cometh; . . .” (Matthew 25:6). The word midnight is described as “a period of darkness.” Dark, from darkness, is “satiric humor.” Satiric is relating to satire. And satire, means “a literary work in which human foolishness is attacked through irony.”

These facts infer that when you see the יהוה בָּן יְהוָה being attacked as human foolishness by the mainstream media, and His moral character dramatized through irony, know that the wedding banquet is ready and the time is at hand for the “official” cry to be made, “Behold, the Bridegroom cometh!”

So that you yourself will clearly understand and quickly recognize the prophetic signs of the “time,” we encourage you to do an in-depth study of the words day, mid-day, night, and midnight.

The play, “The Midnight Hour,” highlights true-life events, experiences, and actions of the five wise virgins and the five foolish virgins in Matthew 25:1-10. This highly exaggerated performance is filled with thought-provoking humor that brings the house down. At the end of this production, you will understand the seriousness of being wise: “Forsake the foolish and live” (Proverbs 9:6). The choice is yours.

SPECIAL REPORT

יהוה בן יהוח has warned that the time of Jacob's trouble is upon us. And He has cautioned that as the time draws closer, as the fire of trials becomes hotter, and as the harshness of that period intensifies many whom He has taught will let themselves drift down away from keeping the commandments, judgments, laws and statutes of יהוה instead of taking hold to instructions and becoming true disciples.

Most think that this could never happen to them. They think they understand what "trouble" means, and that therefore, it will never affect their lives. But there is no way Jacob, nor anyone else, can understand the profound, divine implications of the time of Jacob's trouble outside the teachings of יהוה בן יהוח. Without the knowledge He imparts, you cannot recognize the devastating impact that this period will have upon you, your family, your children, your income, your health, and all that you hold dear.

Jeremiah, Chapter 30, verse 7 reads:

Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

Yes, this time of trouble is great, and there is none like it. However, just knowing this fact does not help you understand the true severity of Jacob's trouble, nor how subtle the adversaries of יהוה have been working to bring those days about.

Trouble in the Concise Oxford English Dictionary, Tenth Edition, computer software, copyright 2001, is defined as "a situation in which one is liable to incur punishment or blame; public unrest or disorder."

There is no doubt that Jacob is liable to incur punishment during this time of trouble. In fact, Jacob, the so-called Black man of America shall be punished for his sin against יהוה בן יהוח; he is to blame for turning away and following after other gods, but this also is to be a time of public unrest and civil disorder.

No one can escape seeing or reading about the numerous displays of public unrest and disorder in the news over the deaths of young black men at the hands of the very government agencies that are charged to protect and serve the community. Are the protests and resulting violence the normal, expected consequence of the anguish and grief felt in the black community, or could this be just the surface of an orchestrated campaign to exploit the existing unrest, dissatisfaction, and disunity in that community to provide today's rulers with a justifiable reason to put into effect laws—passed decades ago—to round up Judah and put them into internment centers and concentration camps?

יהוה בן יהוח exposed the American government's plans for Judah in 1979. The plans included King Alfred: the American President's discretionary response to widespread, continuing, and coordinated racial disturbances in the United States using the combined forces of federal, state, and local law enforcement to capture and transport blacks to pre-designated holding areas located in ten pre-selected regions throughout the United States.

But with the relative ease at which the protests against the Trayvon Martin and Michael Brown killings were squelched, some may believe that such extreme civil discord shall never exist that the president would dare implement an unprecedented widespread round-up. Those who believe this have bought the deceptive nature of today's social climate hook, line, and sinker.

Just look at the true feelings of some of white America displayed by the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at the University of Oklahoma a few months ago. Rather than accept that their racist chant was indicative of the heart-felt sentiment of some in the nation, school authorities and the students' elders had the audacity to ask where could they have learned such a thing.

What is more telling is, that the government is utilizing secret, psychological tactics to keep the tension at the forefront of the masses. Don't think this could be true? Think back to the cointelpro conflict caused between black organizations authored by the government. J. Edgar Hoover, a black man passing for white, was the overseer then. In 1979, יהוה בָנִי יהוה published an article entitled, "Be Aware" that told us of this government's capacity to use tactics against us.

Well, some may question that those are things that were in the past. Yet, America has not abandoned her disruptive campaigns. A modern-day example of what יהוה בָנִי יהוה predicted is seen in how plans are underway to acclimate Americans to accept martial law in a time of national emergency. United States troops are training with local police forces on house-to-house or urban warfare maneuvers, in nine different states inside cities such as Dallas, Texas plus Tampa and Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

The official publicized reason for the maneuvers is to conduct drills that will prepare the military and Special Operations Forces using realistic, unfamiliar scenarios before they deploy abroad.

These drills include instructions in restoring and maintaining law and order, quelling riots, identifying and arresting key leaders, and employing the mass internment of citizens.

Now use your common sense, why train troops for such maneuvers in cities that have no similarities to the villages and towns located within Middle-Eastern countries? The actual Civil Disturbance Operations training manual outlines how troops are to be used both outside the continental U.S. (OCONUS) and inside the continental U.S. (CONUS).

More alarming is the fact that the government's plans also make use of enlisted personnel operating undetected among the civilian population. These soldiers are to infiltrate the community to see if they are able to move about without being noticed. Does that sound familiar? Could this be cointelpro 2?

The Department of Homeland Security has already labeled those who participated in the "Occupy" protests of recent times as domestic terrorists. Don't think they haven't also labeled those who marched for justice in Ferguson, Missouri as such. And be mindful of the fact that law enforcement more increasingly are now utilizing lapel cameras. Do you think this is for your safety, or to have a recording of you for later use?

So Judah be aware. Don't be a victim of this government's attempts to keep you at the threshold of protest and unrest. You must be on guard. If you elect to ignore the obvious indications, you will be guilty of what בָנִי יהוה warned: drifting away from the commandments, judgments, laws, and statutes of יהוה. Then you will not be among that group saved out of Jacob's trouble.

יהוה IN THE SEVENTH (SOLAR) MONTH

Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall you have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation. You shall do no servile work therein: (Leviticus 23:24-25).

The Memorial of Blowing of Trumpets emphasizes the importance of remembering our past and looking towards a future event. This future event signals the triumphant return of יהוה בָּן to rescue His people, the moral people of the earth, His firstfruits. In addition, this holy day serves as a reminder that to be blessed we must keep the laws of יהוה. While at the same time, it is a reminder that if we break the laws of יהוה, He will punish us. Therefore, keep this law in the comfort of your own home, beginning sundown September 15th through sundown September 16th, 2015. For more information regarding this one day festival, click the feasts of יהוה button at www.yahwehbenyahweh.com, then the Memorial of Blowing of Trumpets.

Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and you shall afflict your souls, . . . For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people . . . it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings (Leviticus 23:27-31).

During the Day of Atonement, neither food nor water is to be taken into the body (fast). This action denotes that the substance of this solemn occasion is not carnal food, but the spiritual intake and the mental satisfaction by which one is revived, rejuvenated, and compelled to be in accord with the divine will of יהוה. The Day of Atonement begins sundown September 24th through sundown September 25th, 2015. For more details, again click the feasts of יהוה, then Day of Atonement.

BOOK OF THE MONTH

SEPTEMBER

The rising of the beast out of the sea is one of the greatest mysteries and most frightening prophecies in the Bible (Revelation 13:1). While the beast has been portrayed as a figurative monster, the truth of the matter is, this beast has a literal existence on earth today, and it is to rise from the sea.

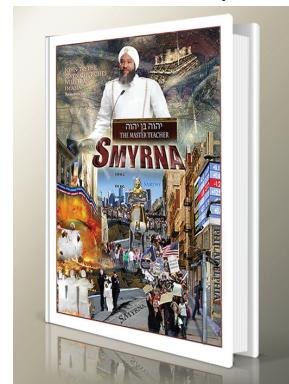

Knowing what the sea symbolizes is the "key" to the identity of this beast: the s-e-a is not describing a body of water as we know it, but rather the S-e-e: the See of Rome.

OCTOBER

Many have attempted to demystify the identity of the seven churches in Asia. In this book, יהוה בָּן reveals the parallel of Smyrna to her modern-day counterpart, America, like no one else can.

He shows that the people of Smyrna made gods of their own, and the people of America have likewise made gods of their own. The people of Smyrna had a choice to serve their false gods or to serve יהוה, the God of gods, just as the inhabitants of America are faced with the same decision today. Read this hard-hitting and thought provoking book so you will be able to see clearly that history is repeating itself.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

LIVING WATERS

יְהוָה בֶן יְהוָה is "The Fountain of 'Living' Waters." He taught us that everything physical has a spiritual counterpart. The same degree to which your body needs physical water is the same to which your mind needs the "living" water of יְהוָה בֶן יְהוָה. In John 7:37-38, יְהוָה בֶן יְהוָה says:

". . . If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink. He that believeth on Me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water."

Did you know that the "lack" of a sufficient quantity of water will set off a chain reaction of ills in your body? Everything from constipation to Alzheimer's disease is affected by lack of water. Water is the "principal" transporting agent of the body. A simple term that can be applied to our daily living is: "Movement is life; stagnation is death."

When water ceases to flow through your body, it becomes inactive. In like manner, when you cease to study the word of יְהוָה daily, you become inactive in His laws; and, at some point, a spiritual death occurs. A non-spiritual mind is the same as a carnal mind. This is why יְהוָה בֶן יְהוָה says in Romans 8:6:

"For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

Being carnally minded is the breeding ground for all the ills in your body. From grade school to now, we have been trained to drink everything from cow's milk to sugar drinks; plus eat three meals a day of the Standard American Diet (SAD). For this reason, we have overtaxed and overburdened our systems.

This is why drinking physical water is so crucial to the body. Water helps to lubricate joints, bones, and organs; maintain muscle tone, metabolize fat, transport nutrients; remove toxic waste, reduce the occurrences of heart attacks, and prevent infection of the digestive system and urinary tract.

Now when we are spiritually minded, we remember the purpose of drinking water, which is to refresh, enliven, and invigorate the body and the mind. יְהוָה בֶן יְהוָה addressed this subject of drinking water when He said, "Drink water as if your life depends on it." Revelation 22:17 reiterates:

". . . And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

Both your physical life and spiritual life is dependent upon water: drinking water and the water of life.

To regain control of your physical health and vibrancy, most health authorities agree that drinking at least 64 ounces of water daily (2 liters) should help maintain a healthy body. While at the same time, יְהוָה בֶן יְהוָה teaches that taking in at least one hour a day of His "living water"—the water of life—will not only flush and clean out the old wastes in your mind, but will also give you good health, perfect peace, and life eternal.

Coriander

And יהוה said, "Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat" (Genesis 1:29).

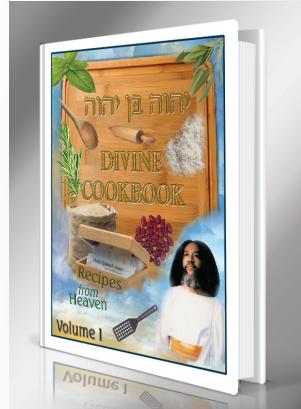

The herb bearing seed, coriander (also called cilantro), has been around since Biblical times (Exodus 16:31; Numbers 11:7). It is a useful herb for relieving numerous ailments. In fact, the antioxidant properties in cilantro help to lower the risk of oxidative stress in cells that are carcinogenic (cancer causing). This herb is used as a heavy metal detox agent to detoxify aluminum, cadmium, lead, and mercury from your body. Research shows that it can also purify water (Time.com). To enjoy the life-giving properties of cilantro, add a handful in your juicing regimen or consume the fresh leaves on a regular basis.

The coriander seed is a fast growing aromatic herb that should be planted in the spring after the last frost date or in the fall.

SALT: A SEASON FOR CHANGE

PART TWO

In Part One, we told you that Salt from the Greek dictionary, reference number 217 is defined figuratively as "Prudence." We described the adjective, prudent, as exercising sound judgment in practical matters, being cautious or discreet in conduct and not rash with one's mouth.

In this article, we shall continue to show you the physical effect of salt, its "spiritual" application, and how it will enable you to have self-discipline, when sprinkled in the right amount. But first, we will examine the word prudence from another perspective.

According to The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 957, Prudence is synonymous to "self-restraint." Restrain, the root of restraint, means "to keep under control; to limit or restrict" (as referenced in Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, copyright 1994, on pages 1145, 1218).

Too little or too much of anything will send a well balanced machine out of control. For instance, salt, also known as sodium, is a vital constituent of the human body, and is necessary to human life. Too little salt can lead to heart and blood vessel diseases or even death; and too much salt in the blood causes hypertension (or high blood pressure), which can lead to a heart attack, kidney failure, or stroke.

Five Wise and Five Foolish Virgins

Salt: A Season For Change, continued

The same principle of too much or too little can be applied in the spiritual sense. For example, if you know the laws of יְהוָה but practice them only a little, it will cause both your mind and body to be out of control. Practicing the laws of יְהוָה is a very vital constituent in your “every-day” life; otherwise, you will wander out of the way of understanding and remain in the congregation of the dead (Proverbs 21:16).

In addition, if you exalt yourself too much as being the example of righteousness and think you are holier than thou (Isaiah 65:5) because you fast twice in the week or give tithes of all you possess (Luke 18:12), יְהוָה בָּן יְהוָה will cause you to realize and accept John 8:7 which says: He that is without sin, cast the first stone.

Therefore, to keep you on solid ground so you think not of yourself more highly than you should (Romans 12:3), sprinkle the “spiritual” salt (the laws of יְהוָה) daily in your character. This will help keep your emotions under control, limit your outside negative influences, and help you to restrict yourself from eating of the knowledge from the tree of good and evil. If you do not impose self-discipline on yourself, then your ability to rule over your own spirit will eventually break down, according to Proverbs 25:28, which reads:

“He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.”

In our next article, we will share with you how “salt” can bring about an ionic change in your spiritual life.

You have nerve,
to ask for my information.

When while I was,
praying and waiting,
you were partaking,
in unrighteous situations.

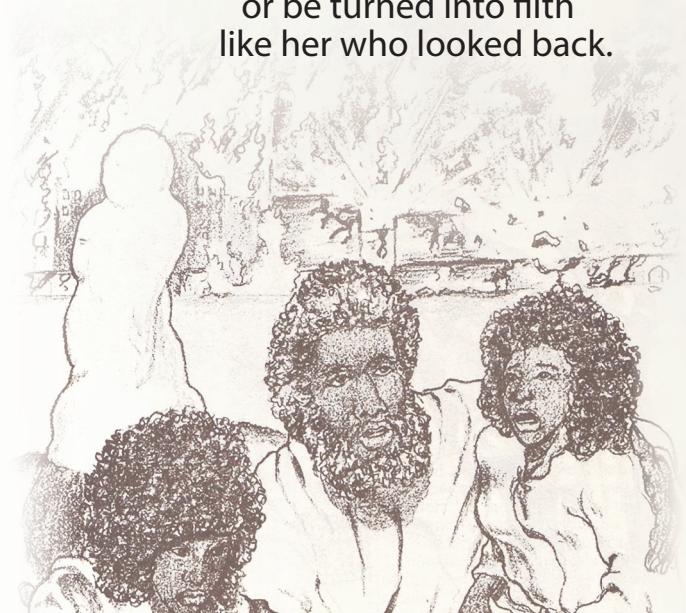

Aiding and abetting yourself
under the false pretense, that He won't mind and,
“Hey, even if He does I-I-I got time!”
I'll make it up to Him next year.
I'll atone, and repent till,
I think the coast is clear.

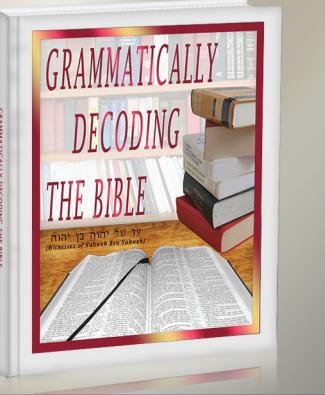

But right before your eyes,
the time is here.

And what have you to show,
but a dysfunctional mentality,
an inferior personality,
and a soul infected and festering in immorality.

My light is burning bright, and I have plenty oil.
So you go back out there,
and see if they have what you're looking for.

Because יְהוָה is about to shut
His door and I do not want to be on the wrong side of the tracks or be turned into filth like her who looked back.

The glory of יהוה is declared through language, be it speech or writing. "The heavens declare the glory of יהוה; . . . There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world" (Psalm 19:1-4).

Language is the basis of education, and education is a waste of time without the Bible. A good understanding of the Bible is not possible without learning the language in which it is written.

Nevertheless, יהוה caused the English language to be elaborately interconnected into "eight" parts of speech: nouns, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, prepositions, conjunctions, and interjections.

Therefore, if you want a good understanding of the Scriptures, you must be able to decode a word in the part of speech in which it was encoded. That is the overall objective of this book: Grammatically Decoding The Bible. Please read to gain your own understanding.

THE BIBLE AND GRAMMAR

A good understanding of the Bible is not possible without learning the language in which it is written. In this case, that language is English, which was elaborately organized into eight parts of speech. Astonishingly these parts of speech were used deliberately to deceive the whole world. How could this be? Was not the Bible inspired by יהוה Himself? To find the answer to these questions, let us first expose who, then how this deception was perpetrated.

To successfully accomplish such a magnanimous task, one would have to be quite skilled and most subtle. Our first introduction to the person who fits this description can be found in Genesis, Chapter 3, verse 1, and it reads:

"Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the Lord, יהוה, had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath יהוה said, ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?"

Now the first connotation that comes to mind of a serpent is a slithering snake that moves upon the ground. But you and I both know that a snake does not talk. Therefore, let's examine the word serpent from a logical perspective.

Referenced in the Random House College Dictionary, Revised

Edition, copyright 1988, on page 1202, serpent is defined as, "a wily, treacherous or malicious person." And wily, on the other hand, is synonymous to "calculating," according to The American Heritage Dictionary of the English language, copyright 1969, on page 1466.

So, from these definitions we can deduce that this Scripture is not literally referring to a serpent, but rather figuratively talking about a calculating, malicious, or treacherous person or persons who used the English language to confound any one desiring to understand the Bible.

Those persons today are called Jesuits who, by definition, are Roman Catholic scholars given to equivocation, as cited in Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, on page 648. In that same reference source on page 421, equivocate means "to use equivocal language especially with intent to deceive"; equivocal is defined as "subject to two or more interpretations and usually used to mislead or confuse."

Our focal point now, is to unveil how the Jesuits grammatically encoded the Old and New Testaments with the deliberate intent to deceive; thereby, making the Scriptures subject to two or more interpretations to confuse and mislead readers.

As documented in the Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, grammar, under reference numbers 5.28 and 760.7 is sentence structure, and relates to the parts of speech: nouns, pronouns, adjectives, verbs, adverbs, prepositions, conjunctions, and interjections. In addition, another aspect of grammar that is widely overlooked is punctuation.

Punctuation as used in the Bible can be very tricky and misleading if you do not pay close attention. For example, look how punctuation is used in Genesis, Chapter 5, verses 1 and 2:

*"1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that יהוה created man, in the likeness of יהוה made He him;
2 Male and female created He them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created."*

Even after most people have read these two verses, if asked if Adam was a male only, their response would be, "yes." Why? The answer is that most folks tend to look at each numbered verse as disconnected from the other, instead of paying close attention to the punctuation marks; more specifically, in this instance, the semicolon at the end of verse one, and the semicolon in verse two. For better clarification, let us define semicolon.

According to the Microsoft Encarta College Dictionary, copyright 2001, on page 1314, a semicolon "is used to separate two parts of a sentence that have a relationship to each other in terms of meaning when each part could stand alone as a sentence in its own right."

Although these two verses can stand alone as sentences in their own right, the semicolon shows that the Adam in verse one has a relationship to the male and female Adams in verse two in terms of meaning.

This is a good example of how Jesuits scholars treacherously used a grammatically deceptive trick to mislead people in the reading of the Old and New Testaments.

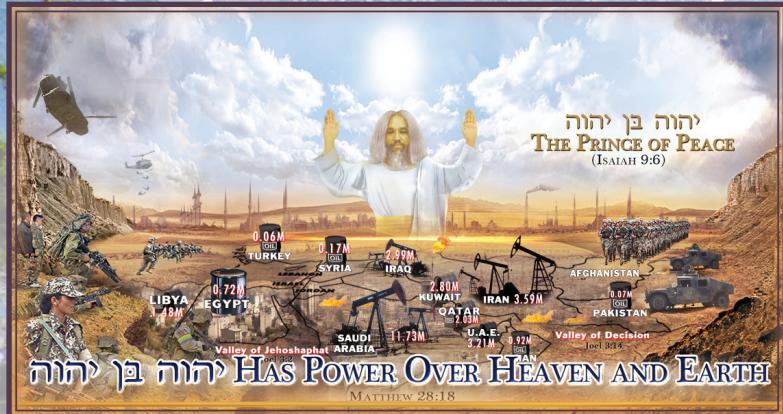

The lingering question now should be how can you overcome such calculating, malicious, and deliberate tricks? יהוה בן יהוה has provided the answer to this question in a host of books. One such book to help expose how the parts of speech were deliberately used to deceive you and the whole world is entitled, Grammatically Decoding The Bible, by the Witnesses of יהוה.

So, if you want to put an end to this diabolical deception, you must follow the divine study method of יהוה בן יהוה, apply the information contained in Grammatically Decoding The Bible, and put into practice 2 Timothy, Chapter 2, verse 15 to "rightly divide the word of truth."

It is written that those who believe in the name יהוה בן יהוה, the Son of יהוה, shall be persecuted and shall be delivered up to be put in prisons, and be brought before kings and rulers for His name's sake (Luke 21:12). With this in mind, keep your contributions coming so we will always be in a financial position to execute an aggressive attack against any legal challenges The Nation of יהוה shall encounter.

Feast of Tabernacles and Holy Convocation 6018

Keeping the Feast of Tabernacles and Holy Convocation in the seventh (solar) month is a “divine” statute that—יהוָה—the God of Israel, the God of the Hebrews—commanded all Israel to observe for eight days throughout our generations by an ordinance forever (Leviticus 23: 34-36, 41). This is not an option but, rather, a legally binding decree.

Do not miss this Feast of Tabernacles and Holy Convocation beginning at sundown on September 29 - October 6, 2015 in the place where יהוָה בָּן יְהוָה has chosen to place His name: The Embassy Suites Hotel and Convention Center in the “Hill Country” of San Marcos, Texas.

Who Is יְהוָה?

In The King James Version of the Bible, by Thomas Nelson, Inc., copyright 1984, on page 763, it states that, “Whenever the words LORD and GOD appear in large and small capital letters, the original Hebrew reads YHWH [Yahweh].” On the authority of Webster’s Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, on page 1365, Yahweh is “the God of the Hebrews—compare tetragrammaton.” In collaboration with The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language (High School Edition), copyright 1979, on page 1331, the word tetragrammaton is defined as “the four Hebrew letters [יהוָה] usually transliterated YHWH [Yahweh] and used as a symbol or substitute for the ineffable name of God.” According to The New Bible Dictionary, by J. D. Douglas, on page 478, “Yahweh is the only name of God.” Conclusively, יהוָה (Yahweh) is the only name of the God of the Hebrews (Exodus 3:18; 9:1, 13).

We acknowledge that all moral-minded people who agree to follow the whole body of the commandments of יהוָה and be faithful unto Him can be joined to The Nation of יהוָה and, therefore, become sons and daughters of יהוָה and joint-heirs with Christ, יהוָה בָּן יְהוָה.
