Who Shall Abide The Indignation of יְהוָה?

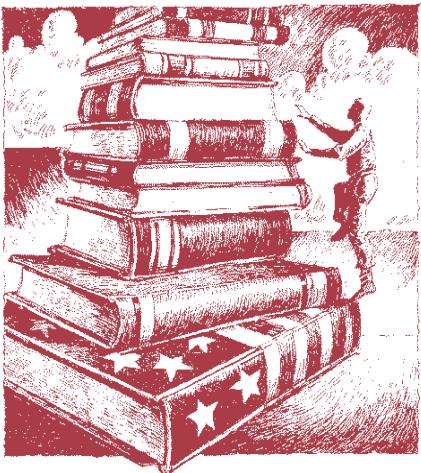

The sins of man have reached unto heaven, and יְהוָה has remembered their iniquities (Rev. 18:5). For, behold, the Lord, יְהוָה, has come out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain (Isaiah 26:21).

The Lord, יְהוָה, is shaking the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; and He is shaking all nations. And the earth is being removed out of her place, in His wrath, and in the day of His fierce anger (Haggai 2:6-7; Isaiah 13:13). You can run to and fro in the city; you can run upon the wall, you can even climb up upon the houses; and try to enter in at the windows like a thief. You may even go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, but you shall not escape the indignation of the Lord, יְהוָה (Joel 2:9; Isaiah 2:20-21).

יְהוָה has sent His Son, יְהוָה בָן יְהוָה, to set judgment in the earth, and He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till He have set judgment in the earth ... (Isaiah 42:4). As prophesied, at His coming, there shall be a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great ... And at His wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide the indignation of יְהוָה (Rev. 16:18; Jer. 10:10).

Repent therefore of your wickedness, for the kingdom of יְהוָה is at hand, and pray to יְהוָה, that if perhaps the thought of His heart may you be forgiven (Matthew 4:17; Acts 8:22).

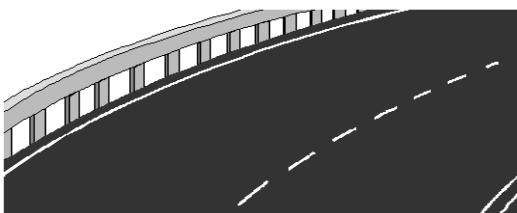

Jeremiah 10:2

"Thus saith the Lord [יְהוָה], Learn not the way of the heathen ..."

As Hebrew Israelites, followers of יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה, we are commanded by our God, יְהוָה, not to learn the way of the heathen. Although we, the whole tribe of Yehuwda (Judah) (Jeremiah 13:19), were sold unto the heathens (Nehemiah 5:8) and have been scattered among them for over four hundred years (Psalm 44:11; Acts 7:6), we are "not" to learn their ways. Even though we have attended and are attending their schools this day, this is a direct order from יְהוָה, the God of the Holy Bible, to learn "not" the way of the heathen. To get an understanding of His "direct" command to us, let us go to the dictionaries to first find out what learn not the way means.

According to The Oxford Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 852, learn means "commit to memory; practice." On page 1016 of this same source the word not is "used to express the negative of other words." On page 998 of the same source, negative is denoted as "expressing prohibition," and on page

LEARN NOT THE WAY OF THE HEATHEN

1194, prohibition means "an order that forbids." On the authority of The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1336, the word way expresses "custom and convention."

Simply put, learn not the way tells us that יְהוָה has given Judah an order that forbids us from committing to our memory the customs of the heathen. Despite the fact that we have been sold unto the heathen as slaves, scattered among them, and are as a speckled bird, we are forbidden to commit to memory their practices. And even if we still bear the names of the heathen--our slave masters, which makes us their property--we have a direct order from יְהוָה that forbids us from practicing their customs. More still, after being forced to attend the learning institutions of the heathen, from preschool to grade school, יְהוָה yet ordered us to in no way practice their conventions. Subsequent to over four hundred years of being in servitude to the heathen, why would יְהוָה command us not to commit to memory nor practice the customs or conventions of the heathen? The answer is found in Jeremiah, Chapter 10, verse 3, which reads in part:

"For the customs of the people are vain ... "

The customs of the people are vain. And what does the word vain mean? Stated in the Concise Oxford English Dictionary, Revised Tenth Edition 2002, on page 1583, vain is described as “having no meaning or likelihood of fulfillment.” In The Synonym Finder, by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1308, vain is expressed as “false, imaginary, fruitless, and to no avail.”

From these definitions, we can deduce that the customs that belong to the people who bought us as their property must have no meaning to us when we become conscious of יְהוָה, our God, and His Son, יְהוָה בֶן־יְהוָה, our Messiah.

In light of the knowledge that was taught to us by יְהוָה בֶן־יְהוָה, we have learned that these customs, in reality, have no likelihood of fulfillment. Why? Because they are false and imaginary. And not only that, but they are not written in the Holy Bible as statutes for the people of יְהוּדָה to follow.

This being the case, the customs of the people are fruitless and to no avail unto Yehuwdah (Judah). Therefore, יְהוָה commanded us to not commit to memory or practice the customs of these people, because they are unprofitable to us.

In our next article, we will unveil the heathen unto whom we were sold and begin to show his customs and conventions that are of no value to us as the people of יְהוּדָה.

יְהוָה בֶן־יְהוָה Prepare Ye The Way of the Lord,

“In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the Lord’s, תַּנְצֵלָה, passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord, תַּנְצֵלָה: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread” (Leviticus 23:5-6).

Passover is the night of the Lord, יְהוָה, during which He performed a great miracle on behalf of Israel when He unleashed the tenth and ultimate plague upon the Egyptians destroying their firstborn of both man and beast, while leaving the children of Israel unscathed. This phenomenal event led to the release of Israel from captivity and, also, established Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread as the high holy days we are commanded to commemorate forever.

The Ten Plagues

of Egypt - Part 2

This is a continuation of the series on "The Ten Plagues of Egypt." In part one we substantiated with irrefutable documentation--from Exodus, Chapter 7, verses 17 and 18--that America is destined to suffer the same plagues as ancient Egypt if modern-day Pharaoh, the President of the United States of America, continues to hold the Messiah, הַמֶּלֶךְ בָּנֵי יִהּוָה, under the unconstitutional "onerous" restrictions that the U. S. Parole Commission has imposed upon Him.

It was determined that as long as the government subjects הַמֶּלֶךְ בָּנֵי יִהּוָה, the Son of הִיא, to these conditions, הִיא shall inflict heavy blows with the rod of His hand upon the income of all the Americans which is in the banks, and their income shall be changed to a financial deficit. In addition, the dollar as well as all the funds or revenues of the American corporations that are in the banks shall also fail. As a result, the banks shall become useless and worthless. That being the case, the Americans shall feel disgust and hate, because when they go to the bank to remove money from their account, the amount they will receive in return will be considerably less than what they initially deposited. In plain English, a thousand dollars "may" only be worth ten dollars.

Having said that, we shall continue the decoding of the "first plague" in Exodus, Chapter 7, verse 19, which reads:

"And the Lord, יְהֹוָה, spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters [income] of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers [banks], and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone."

In light of this Scripture, we can determine that not only was Aaron given a command to stretch out his hand upon the waters--the income--of Egypt, but also upon their streams, their rivers, their ponds, and all their pools of water that they may become blood. Such being the case, let us find out what each of these different waters symbolize today.

First, the word streams. According to The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, Greek Dictionary, copyright 1990, on page 77, the Hebrew transliteration of the word streams is nahar and it means "prosperity." The Chamber's 21st Century Dictionary, copyright 1996, on page 1112, defines prosperity as "wealth"; and in the American Heritage Talking Dictionary, Computer Software, copyright 1997, wealth is characterized as "all resources having value in terms of exchange." Resources (#102.3) and 104.1), according to the Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on pages 137 and 138 describe things such as “materials, equipment, machinery, ammunition, minerals, fuel, fiber, fabric, leather, paper, and plastics” to name a few.

These facts establish that ALL of the resources of America that have value in terms of exchange--such as materials, equipment, machinery, ammunition, minerals, fuel, fiber, fabric, leather, paper, plastics, and the like--may become blood.

Rivers is our second word, which we described in part one as “banks.” With that, we can now move to the third word, ponds. And according to Exodus, Chapter 7, verse 19, they, too, shall become blood. Pond--as referenced in the American Heritage Talking Dictionary, Computer Soft-ware, copyright 1997--is the singular of the plural ponds, and it means “reservoir”; and reservoir, in the same reference source, is equivalent to “stock.” The Webster's New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software, also equates the word stock to “business shares, assets, property, and capital.”

These facts verify that הַנְּתָן' shall stretch out His hand upon ALL the business shares, assets, properties, and capital that the Americans have in various stock companies that they may, in due course, become blood.

And lastly, all their “pools of water” shall become blood. What do “pools of water” symbolize? The Webster's New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, Computer Soft-ware, copyright 1998, identifies pool, the singular of the plural pools, as being equivalent to “provision”; and in the same reference source, provision means the same as “support.” As documented in the American Heritage Talking Dictionary, Computer Soft-ware, copyright 1997, support is synonymous to “job”; while, waters were previously decoded in part one as “income.”

In light of these facts, we can assert definitively that the phrase “pools of water” symbolizes that the American jobs, which is their source of income, shall, inevitably, become blood also.

So what is blood? It was documented in part one that blood is equivalent to “red ink,” which is characterized as “a financial deficit.” And from this definition, we discovered that a financial deficit is “the amount by which a sum of money is less than the required amount.” Also, red ink in the American Heritage Talking Dictionary, Computer Soft-ware, copyright 1997, is “a financial loss in business.”

Given the credibility of all the facts gathered from the words streams, rivers, ponds, pools, and blood, we can conclude that because modern-day Pharaoh, the President of the United States of America--will not let יְהוָה בֶן־יְהוָה go that He may serve unto יְהוָה in the Sunshine State, Florida, or wherever הַנְּתָן shall choose to place His name, then when the Americans go to trade their resources--such as materials, equipment, machinery, ammunition, minerals, fuel, fiber, leather, paper, plastics, or the like--the amount or sum of money they shall receive in exchange will be substantially less than the valued amount. In addition, ALL of the stock companies in America shall suffer from colossal financial losses in business. For that reason, the Americans who possess business shares, assets, properties, and capital in various companies shall suffer huge, unrecoverable financial losses. Examples of such companies are Enron and MCI World Com, and the airlines.

To exacerbate the problem even more, the Americans shall also lose their jobs, their main source of income. For example, GM Motors, IBM, and thousands of other companies have all taken irretrievable financial losses, which have caused millions of people to lose their jobs. Such heavy financial losses shall eventually take its toll on the banks, and they shall experience record-breaking financial losses; such that, in due course, they shall all become worthless and useless.

The last portion of Exodus, Chapter 7, verse 19 reads:

"...and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone."

This last portion of the Scripture gives warning that there will be financial losses in businesses throughout "ALL" the land of America, both in the vessels of wood and in the vessels of stone. What do these two things represent?

First, we shall determine what vessels of wood are. According to The New Oxford Thesaurus of English, Computer Software, copyright 2000, the word vessel is described as a “repository.” In the American Heritage Talking Dictionary, Computer Software, copyright 1997, the word repository is synonymous to “funds.” These facts verify that there will be financial losses throughout all the land of America, both in the funds of wood and in the funds of stone.

In the same source, funds are classified as “available money or ready cash.” On the authority of The Cassell Concise Dictionary, copyright 1998, on page 1681, wood is defined as a “barrel”; and in The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 97, the word barrel is synonymous to “store,” which on page 1171, is equivalent to “mart, department store, supermarket, outlet, drug store, pharmacy, etc.” Thus, assuming the accuracy of these definitions, funds of wood can be interpreted to mean that the marts, department stores, supermarkets, outlets, drug stores, pharmaceuticals, and the like, in America shall all suffer unparalleled financial losses attributable to the lack of available money or ready cash.

In addition, the Random House Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, Computer Software, copyright 1999, defines the word stone as “rock.” In the same reference source, rock is defined as a “foundation.” According to The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 435, foundation is synonymous to “institution.” On page 585, institution is depicted as “medical center, hospital, college, university.” Funds of stone, when logically translated, means that medical centers, hospitals, colleges, and universities shall, in like manner, suffer economic losses, as all of these businesses and institutions shall ultimately succumb to irreparable financial losses.

In summary, on the basis of all the facts we have gathered, we can conclude definitively that as along as modern-day Pharaoh, President George W. Bush, continues to hold the Messiah, בֶּן־יהוָה, under the unconstitutional “onerous” restrictions that have been imposed upon Him by the U. S. Parole Commission for almost three and a half years, then הַתּוֹהֵךְ shall destroy America with the same plagues that He brought upon ancient Egypt.

The unmerciful pounding from these plagues shall be such that when the Americans go to trade their materials, equipment, machinery, ammunition, minerals, fuel, fiber, leather, paper, plastics--the money they shall receive in exchange will be considerably less than the valued amount. In addition, all business shares, assets, properties, and capital that the Americans have in various stock companies shall experience huge financial losses, such as with Enron, MCI World Com, and the airlines. All of these heavy financial losses shall eventually take their toll on the banks, and they shall experience record-breaking financial losses; such that, in due course, they shall all become worthless and useless.

And even more devastating, Americans shall also lose their jobs, their main source of income, because companies like GM Motors, IBM, and thousands of other companies have all taken irretrievable financial losses, which have caused millions of people to be without employment.

Like in the days of ancient Egypt, יְהוָה is declaring to modern-day Pharaoh--the President of the United States of America, to let His Son, יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה, go. If he continues to refuse, then הַרְאֵת shall intensify His plagues, which shall cause all of the businesses in America to suffer unrecoverable financial losses in the marts, department stores, supermarkets, outlets, drug stores, pharmaceutical companies, etc. More specifically, K-mart, Wal-Mart, Sears, Toys "R" Us, JC Penney's, Macy's, Publix, Winn Dixie, Loblaws, Costco, Walgreen, Pfizer, and Bayer, to name a few. This also includes the medical centers, hospitals, universities, and colleges. In due time, all of these financial losses in businesses and institutions throughout America shall ultimately bring the American economy to its knees, and she shall suffer a total economic collapse.

The only way America can be saved from the same deadly plagues that destroyed ancient Egypt is for modern-day Pharaoh--the President of the United States of America--to let the Messiah, the firstborn Son of יְהוָה, go that He may serve יְהוָה and keep the feasts unto יְהוָה in the Sunshine State, Florida--or wherever יְהוָה shall choose to place His name.

Exodus, Chapter 7, verse 25 puts all of this into a timely perspective, and it reads:

"And seven days were fulfilled, after that the Lord, הַרְאֵת, had smitten the river."

According to The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, Greek Dictionary, copyright 1990, on page 112, yowm (#3117) is the Hebrew word for day, and it is defined as a "(full) year."

After the total collapse of the American economy, it shall be seven full years before any economic recovery can even begin to take place. All of these devastating financial losses shall not only come upon America, but they shall overtake her if modern-day Pharaoh--George W. Bush, President of the United States of America--continues to refuse to release the Messiah, יְהוָה בָּנֵי יְהוָה, the Son of יְהוָה, from the unconstitutional "onerous" restrictions that the U. S. Parole Commission has imposed upon Him. As long as the President refuses, the plagues of יְהוָה shall increase: for they shall continue to get worse, and worse, and worse.

Stay tuned for Part Three.

The Abraham Foundation

We must prepare for our legal counsel while it is yet day, so when the “night” comes, our defense will be in a state of readiness: For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it (Ecclesiastes 7:12). Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety (Proverbs 11:14). We thank you for your continual support.
